NEW ZEALAND BUSES IN COLOUR

Past & Present

An all-new treasure trove of 94 captioned colour photographs, the great majority of which are previously unpublished.

Organisation is alphabetical – from Abbots Motors to the Yellow Bus Company.

Many historic and contemporary liveries are represented – from Lemon's Coachlines of Westport to Wellington's Metlink.

Vehicle ages range from the 1950s up to the present. A wide range of manufacturers is represented, both local and overseas – the latter being predominantly British, although also Chinese, German, Japanese and Swedish manufacturers are also represented.

Geographical coverage extends from Ninety Mile Beach in the country's Far North, to Invercargill, in its Deep South, and from major cities to rural.

ISBN 978-1-927329-21-4. A4 format, staple bound. 48 pages, all of which are in colour.
